

FACT SHEET

VILLAGE AT GLENCLIFF

AN OPEN TABLE NASHVILLE COMMUNITY

Open Table Nashville is a non-profit, interfaith community that:

- disrupts cycles of poverty,
- journeys with the marginalized and
- provides education about issues of homelessness.

Open Table Nashville was conceived by a handful of outreach workers, ministers and volunteers connected with Tent City, Nashville's largest homeless encampment located on the banks of the Cumberland River. When the flood of 2010 hit, about 140 people were displaced. That began the work of what became in 2011—Open Table Nashville—an interfaith 501 c 3 non-profit community.

Open Table means a place where everyone is welcome. And that is what we strive for every day at Open Table Nashville.....to find a place of welcome for all people in Nashville.

We focus on education and advocacy. This past year, we served over 2000 individuals and families who were chronically homeless and medically vulnerable---600 were moved into permanent affordable housing.

More than 23,000 people in Nashville experience homelessness every year; about 1700 are served nightly by traditional shelters and transitional housing facilities. The remainder cycle from the streets, doubling up with friends or family, in cars or staying in run-down motels.

Rev. Ingrid McIntyre is Executive Director and co-founder of Open Table Nashville.

OPEN TABLE NASHVILLE
HOUSING. HEALING. HOPE.

The Village at Glencliff is:

- a development comprised of 22 micro homes (Phase One includes 10 homes)
- located at Glencliff United Methodist Church
- designed for people at highest risk of death if they remain homeless

The goal of the Village at Glencliff is to create a loving, hospitable, compassionate and rehabilitative community for our friends who are transitioning from the streets to move toward permanent supportive housing.

- The Village at Glencliff will be constructed on Glencliff United Methodist Church land.
- The micro homes average 220 square feet and incorporate three different architectural designs.
- Each home has a kitchen and bathroom facilities.

The Village at Glencliff is supported by:

- Cal Turner Family Foundation
- The Tennessee Conference and local congregations of the United Methodist Church
- Centric Architects
- Farmer & Morgan LLC
- Wamble and Associates - Surveyors
- and many benevolent individuals and companies